

BEST WINE AND SPIRITS

2017 LUXURY TRAVEL GRAND AWARDS

Coolshanagh is flattered and delighted to be named in the top wines for Andrew Harper's Hideaway Report.

Since 1979, Andrew Harper has been anonymously pursuing elusive properties that offer the utmost unique and consistent level of service. After more than 145,000 miles traveled, and 15 countries visited in 2016, Coolshanagh is the only Canadian wine recognized among eight notable bottles, including Grand Cru Chablis, Burgundy and Bordeaux.

“

It still comes as something of a surprise that Canada can produce superb dry wines, and “superb” is no exaggeration. This Chardonnay felt positively Burgundian, with its combination of richness and focus. It had creamy fruit and a note of buttered popcorn, but lively acids kept the wine beautifully balanced.
